

Informix Administrator

09/02/2005 02:14 PM

To Attorneys

cc

Subject Notice of New Rules, Forms and Procedures

NOTICE OF NEW RULES, FORMS AND PROCEDURES

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas anticipates that it will formally adopt new local rules to be effective on October 17, 2005. The new rules, along with new procedures for consumer motions for relief from the stay, new chapter 13 procedures, and new forms are posted on the Court's website. The following is a direct link:
<http://www.txs.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bkforms.htm>

The Court will conduct two educational seminars on the new 362 procedures. The first seminar will be on September 15, 2005 at 3:00 p.m. and will be in the Houston, Galveston, Laredo, and McAllen Courthouses. The second seminar will be on September 28, 2005 at 10:30 a.m. and will be in the Houston, Corpus Christi, Victoria and Brownsville Courthouses.

Comments on the new rules, forms, and procedures may be sent to the Court at comments@txs.uscourts.gov.